TYPING COACH

A K-tel™ product for Commodore 64™ computers

Now you can have your own private Coach at home! Typing Coach comes with a visual program for your TV or color monitor with audio instruction complete with music. Your Coach walks you through 28 self paced, interactive typing lessons, featuring easy to follow color-coded keys and finger positions. Each lesson includes practice text and automatically records the score of words per minute and errors per text. These scores are maintained to compare with new scores and show your rapid progress. Excellent program to teach typing, refresh rusty typing skills and learn the keyboard. Just a dozen one-hour sessions will dramatically increase your typing speed and accuracy. All you need is Coach and a little practice!

- Insert diskette into the disk drive following the instructions in your computer manual. Turn on your Commodore 64™ computer. To load type: LOAD "TYPE",8 press RETURN. At READY prompt type RUN, press RETURN.
- Insert the audio cassette in the audio player. When you're ready to begin, press PLAY. The cassette is an introduction and doesn't play in synchrony with the software program.
- Follow the prompts on the screen to choose lessons 1-28.
- To return to main menu press F1.
- Typing Coach is specially designed software that gives you 'hands-on' experience without having to read an extensive instruction booklet. Simply follow the prompts that appear on the screen and advance through the 28 typing lessons. Coach measures your progress by keeping scores for your speed and accuracy. Watch your skill increase in just a few practice sessions as it saves your scores in numeric and graph form. Fun to use, easy to understand, it's Coach!
